PERSONALLY SPEAKING

Looking out for you like family

Dear Friends,

As we write this, Russia's invasion of Ukraine has created extreme disruption in the energy markets, causing all energy prices to soar.

At Swezey Fuel, we're deeply concerned about this situation and hope that the price spike is temporary. In challenging times, we return to the values that have guided this company for over a century: integrity, professionalism and responding quickly when our customers call—24 hours a day, seven days a week.

We work hard to deliver superior, responsive service because you, the customer, are a part of the Swezey family. We treasure your loyalty—especially when the going gets tough. Rest assured, we have an adequate supply of fuel to keep your home safe and comfortable.

We couldn't do this without our dedicated employees. Three longtime Swezey team members will retire this year: Field Supervisor Nick Gaveglia

Kent, Gary, Bruce and Michael

(part of the family since 1989), Office Manager Maureen Skelly (since 2006) and Glenn Hulsberg (see article to the right). We're sorry to see them leave but excited for their new chapters!

Don't hesitate to call if you need assistance—we hope that by the time you read this, we're all living in a more peaceful world.

Warmly,

Bruce Gary Kent Michael

one amazing team

We can't stop singing the praises of our drivers, technicians and other staff. Once again, they came through for our customers, overcoming the usual winter trials and the continued challenges posed by the pandemic.

Thanks also to you, our valued customer. Your kind words and thoughtful gestures got us through these tough times!

happy trails, Glenn!

Glenn Hulsberg just finished his 30th winter at Swezey. It's his last one before retiring in June. Glenn started with us in 1992.

He began as an oil delivery driver, and after five years, Swezey trained him to become a service mechanic.

Since then, he's answered no-heat calls, water and oil leaks and countless maintenance appointments.

"I like being able to help people," he says, "especially fixing their heat in the middle of winter."

He also liked working with a family-run business that cares for its employees. That's why he stuck around!

In his spare time, Glenn enjoys boating with his wife along the North Shore. In retirement, they expect to stay busy.

"We're going to be snowbirds," Glenn says. "We'll split our time between Florida and Maine."

Best wishes, Glenn! We'll miss you here at Swezey.

one step ahead of the summer heat

Summer is right around the corner, and we're here to help you beat the heat!

Have you taken care of your annual air conditioning service check? If so, you're already one step ahead. Regular maintenance ensures that your system works at peak efficiency when temperatures rise. And remember — your tune-up is free with one of our A/C service plans.

Worried your current A/C can't handle the Long Island heat?

Speak with us about replacing your old cooling system, especially if it uses discontinued, expensive R-22 refrigerant. A ductless mini-split system is the ideal solution for persistent "hot spots" in your home. Our expert technicians will walk you through your options and provide a no-obligation estimate. You might even qualify for special financing and rebates!

At Swezey, your comfort is our top priority. Call our office or visit SwezeyFuel.com to set up an appointment before the weather starts sizzling!

Congratulations to Maureen L., winner of a home office upgrade from our Fall 2021 contest, and to Gerard C., who won second prize — a $500 gift card!
