Terms and Conditions

1. Periodic tune-up will be performed every 800 gallons of usage during the agreement term during regular working hours. It is the customer's responsibility to call our office to schedule an appointment. See tune-up panel (opposite page) for complete details of our comprehensive tune-up.
2. This agreement will be void if all fuel oil requirements are not purchased from Company, if Customer removes himself from automatic delivery status, if Customer procures heating equipment service or has equipment installed by anyone other than a Company employee.
3. This agreement does not ensure against fuel storage tank leakage or any damages to persons or to property resulting from tank leakage. This agreement does not cover any installation, cleanup, removal, remediation or other costs of compliance with any laws, rules or regulations regarding fuel storage tanks. Company will not be responsible for any injury or damage resulting from the disposal, discharge, dispersal, release or escape of oil or other petroleum substance into or upon the Customer's property, surrounding property, the atmosphere, or any water course or body of water, unless caused by the negligence of Company.
4. Company reserves the right to reject any equipment from coverage should the inspecting service technician find it to be unacceptable.
5. The term of this agreement is one year from the date of acceptance. It will automatically renew at that time unless we are notified of cancellation in writing thirty days prior. The Customer may assign this agreement to any future purchaser of the Customer's home, provided due notice is given to Company in writing before the transfer of ownership.
